

LIMAIA
PARIS

Authentic - Ethical - Natural - Sustainable

Limaia Collection

SPRING-SUMMER 2026

From the Founder

Manahoana (which means “hello” in Malagasy),

I’m Lilas. I was born and raised in Madagascar, surrounded by artisanal know-how passed down through generations.

When I founded LIMAIA Paris, my dream was to build a bridge between my roots and my life in France, creating a brand that celebrates both the beauty of raffia and the immense talent of Malagasy women artisans.

The name LIMAIA comes from the combination of my first name and my daughter’s name, Maya - a symbol of transmission, love, and continuity across generations.

Today, this project has become a true human and creative adventure.

Each creation is handmade with passion and patience, embodying the values which are important for myself: authenticity, durability, and solidarity.

LIMAIA is not just an accessories brand: it is also a community of women who, through their work, regain their independence and self-confidence.

Every piece is unique: it carries the name of the very first woman who crocheted it. This is my way of honoring their talent, thanking them, and giving a soul to each of our creations.

It is in this spirit that I imagined our new collection: Soléa, a radiant and refined line, designed to accompany every moment of life.

This season comes with two exclusive capsules:

- ☀️ Caliora - bold and colorful creations, an ode to summer joy and vibrant energy.
- 🌸 Zayana - modern and elegant designs, symbolizing femininity and calm strength.

With Soléa, I hope to share a little of the light that inspires me every day in Madagascar, and invite you to create your own stories with our pieces.

With gratitude,
Lilas - Founder of LIMAIA Paris

About us

Heritage woven into timeless creations.

In Madagascar, which provides 75% of the world's raffia, this natural and sustainable fiber is far more than just a raw material: it is a heritage.

Harvested by hand, raffia is environmentally friendly, biodiversity-respectful, and carries out an ancestral know-how.

Raffia is a natural fiber celebrated for its exceptional strength, remarkable flexibility, and sustainable qualities.

At LIMAIA Paris, we transform this fiber with care, giving life to unique, authentic, and timeless creations.

Our expertise

Authentic craft, refined to perfection.

In our workshops in Madagascar, each strand is carefully transformed by skilled women artisans, who preserve and pass down traditional techniques through their hands.

Every creation is the result of hours of meticulous work, where patience and precision come together to shape accessories that are not only sustainable and refined, but also carry a deeper meaning:

a story of heritage, craftsmanship and empowerment.

Our commitments

Ethical elegance, empowering women.

Beyond creation, LIMAIA Paris is a human adventure. We work for the empowerment of Malagasy women by providing stable jobs, training, and long-term opportunities.

Each piece therefore carries a double value: the elegance of a unique accessory and the story of a community moving forward with strength and solidarity!

SOLÉA

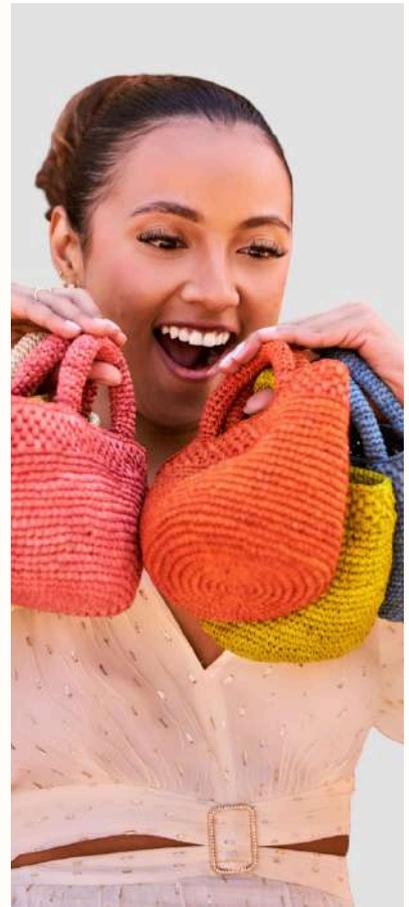

Sunlight woven into every piece

Woven with tradition, designed for today

Handmade with care, carried across the world
